The National Heritage Roses Group

An Informal Fellowship
Of Those Who Love
Old Roses

Formed in 1975, the Heritage Roses Group is the “mother” of Old Rose Groups in the United States, and has served as the inspiration for similar groups in Great Britain, Australia, and New Zealand, and local chapters across the United States, and around the world.

Members Enjoy The “ROSE LETTER”

Annual members of the National Heritage Roses Group receive a quarterly publication — “The Rose Letter” — mailed in February, May, August, and November.

“Rose Letter” offers a mélange of rose related articles, cultivation tips, plant exchanges, “rosy” recipes, events, photographs, research results, rose history, and more. Articles are contributed by rosarians across the United States, and around the world.

($20.00 Annual Dues)

There’s also a
DIGITAL EDITION
of “The Rose Letter”

A full-color, downloadable pdf file.
($12.00 Annual Dues)
